Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board of Directors ("Board") of AGX Group Berhad ("AGX" or the "Company") affirms its commitment in adopting and maintaining high standard of accountability, responsibility and transparency in the Company and its subsidiaries ("Group")' business operations and affairs. The Board committees ensure that the best practices and principles set out Malaysian Code of Corporate Governance ("MCCG") are adhered to, where possible, towards building and enhancing long term shareholders' relationships and values. The Board is responsible for formulating and reviewing the Group's overall strategic plans and key policies of the Company, providing oversight of the Senior Management performance, risk assessment and controls over the Group's business operations and investor relations. The Board in discharging its fiduciary obligations and responsibilities, is guided by current legal and regulatory requirements, the Company's Constitution and the Board Charter. While the Board delegates the implementation of the Company's strategies to the Senior Management, it establishes the right tone at the top by giving thought leadership and advocating good governance and ethical practices throughout the company. To ensure effective discharge of its stewardship role, the Board has established three (3) Board Committees, namely, the Audit and Risk Management Committee ("ARMC"), the Nomination Committee ("NC"), and the Remuneration Committee ("RC"). The Board delegated specific duties to the respective Board Committees in accordance with their Terms of References to assist the Board in performing certain of its functions and to provide recommendations and advice to the Board. The Board is ultimately responsible for making decisions on all subjects.

	The Board Charter and Terms of Reference of the respective Board Committees are available on the Company's website at www.agxlogistics.com .

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NC of the Company is responsible for reviewing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the Board Committees, and the contributions of each individual Director. This review takes into consideration the composition, structure, mix of skills, experience, and core competencies of the Board. The NC also evaluates the tenure of Directors prior to recommending their re-appointment at the Annual General Meeting ("AGM"). The effectiveness of the Board, the individual contributions of each Director, and the performance of the Board's various Committees are assessed on an annual basis. According to the Board Charter, if the Board intends to retain an Independent Non-Executive Director beyond a nine-year term, the Director may continue to serve on the Board, provided they are re-designated as a Non-Independent Director.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The tenure of each of the four (4) Independent Directors of the Company has not exceeded a cumulative term of nine (9) years.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.
Application	: Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	: According to the Board Charter, if the Board intends to retain an Independent Non-Executive Director beyond a nine-year term, the Director may continue to serve on the Board, provided they are re-designated as a Non-Independent Director.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination Committee ("NC") is responsible for the evaluation and assessment of the board members and key senior management team. The NC takes the candidates into consideration through:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>i. Technical competency, skills, knowledge, expertise, and experience;</li><li>ii. Strong sense of professionalism;</li><li>iii. Integrity;</li><li>iv. Merit and against objective criteria with due regard for the benefits of boardroom diversity, including gender, age, ethnicity, cultural background, character;</li><li>v. Other commitments and time available to contribute inputs to the Board; and</li><li>vi. In the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the NC will evaluate the candidates' ability to discharge such responsibilities and functions as expected from Independent Non-Executive Directors.</li></ul> This provides a collective range of skills, expertise, and experience that fit the Group's objectives and strategic goals.
Explanation for departure	:

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Appointments of new directors are undertaken by the Board as a whole after considering the recommendations of the NC. Potential candidates can be nominated by any current Board member, shareholder, or management, as well as through independent sources such as recruitment firms or industry associations.  When considering potential candidates for appointment, the NC conducts a thorough review of their qualifications, skills, knowledge, expertise, experience, personal characteristics, and ability to devote the necessary time and commitment to the role.  There was no new appointment of a Director during the financial year under review.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.7

The board should ensure shareholders have the information they require to make an informed decision on the appointment and reappointment of a director. This includes details of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the board and to act in the best interests of the listed company as a whole. The board should also provide a statement as to whether it supports the appointment or reappointment of the candidate and the reasons why.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The details of the Directors interest, position and experience are set out in the Directors’ profile in the Annual Report.  Shareholders will be kept informed of the Board's decisions on director appointment and reappointment through Bursa Securities announcements and/or press releases.

Timeframe	:	Choose an item.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NC will conduct annual assessments on the effectiveness and performance of the Board, Board Committees, and individual Directors to ensure that the Board is functioning properly as a whole. Each Director will perform a full assessment in the Directors' Performance Evaluation, which covered topics relevant to the Board's performance, such as contribution to interaction, quality of input, role understanding, and personal development. Each Board Committee will be evaluated based on its structure, functions, and responsibilities, the performance of the respective Chairperson, and the Committee's performance in relation to its Terms of Reference. The assessment will be conducted internally, and the results will be compiled, documented, and presented to the Board as part of the Company's continuous corporate governance activities.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has established a Remuneration Policy and Procedures for Directors and Senior Management which strives to attract, retain, and motivate high-calibre directors and senior management capable of successfully managing and overseeing the Company's operations. Various factors were considered when determining the remuneration of the Directors and Senior Management of the Company, among others, function, workload, roles and responsibilities, peers' practices, demand, scale and complexity of the business. The remuneration package of Directors consists of Directors' fees and benefits payable such as meeting allowance. ### Practice 13.5

The board must ensure that the conduct of a virtual general meeting (fully virtual or hybrid) support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. This includes having in place the required infrastructure and tools to support among others, a smooth broadcast of the general meeting and interactive participation by shareholders. Questions posed by shareholders should be made visible to all meeting participants during the meeting itself.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to. Further, a listed issuer should also provide brief reasons on the choice of the meeting platform.
Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company held its 4th AGM entirely virtually due to the high costs involved. However, for the upcoming AGM in 2025 and future AGMs, the Company may need to hold the meeting at a physical venue in Malaysia or in a hybrid format, in compliance with the ACE Market Listing Requirements by Bursa Malaysia, effective 1 March 2025. During the 4th AGM, the Company utilized the RPV facilities provided by AGMO as the platform for conducting the fully virtual general meeting. The Company, along with IT support, ensured smooth broadcasting of the meeting and facilitated interactive participation by shareholders. Shareholders were able to view the proceedings remotely via computers, tablets, or mobile phones. Questions posed by shareholders were made visible to all meeting participants during the meeting itself.
